

Editorial schedule 2009:

January deadline 5/12/08	Business banking UK – managing the recession Commercial mortgage UK CEOs – comment on 2008 and the challenges of 2009 Invoice finance in Australia and New Zealand CFA conference 2008 – San Francisco
February deadline 19/01/09	Wet trade UK – liquidity running out? Trade finance – how is the sector doing? Credit insurance – when the going gets tough..... Invoice finance France Invoice finance Germany
March deadline 16/02/09	Receivables 2008 – the twelfth Business Money annual review of the UK receivables finance sector Corporate restructuring – too many non-resuscitation cases? MBOs – a regular report China – a report on the growth of invoice finance
April deadline 18/03/09	Manpower – has Euro law killed the sector? Distribution – coping with a crowded island Receivables 2008 follow up India – a huge opportunity Factoring worldwide – operational challenge
May deadline 16/04/09	Retail – more gloom on the high street? Internet sales – the way forward IT business Italy – a hot bed of factoring, is the economy hot too? Israel – a developing market The Sixth Business Money All-Asset Finance Conference – London – taking the sector forward
June deadline 18/05/09	Supermarket suppliers – a perennial challenge Property – when will it end? Commercial mortgages UK – a comprehensive review USA – market overview Russia – huge opportunity
July deadline 17/06/09	Leisure UK – weak pound = strong opportunity? Rural industries UK – on the up? United Arab Emirates – is change oiling the wheels? Poland – handling the world recession
August deadline 16/07/09	Fashion UK – plunging bottom lines? Corporate recovery – boom time Hungary – coping with hard times Canada – catching the USA backlash? The Business Money Review of All-Asset Finance provider
September deadline 18/08/09	Invoice finance report – the UK CEOs have their say Professionals – the legal and accountancy professions Home working – top marks? Buy-to-let – still paying its way? Ireland – can the Celtic tiger roar again?
October deadline 17/09/09	Intermediaries – the big boys are moving in, what are the others doing? Property – autumnal update MBOs – is the sun still shining? South Africa – an economy facing challenges Malta – growing, growing
November deadline 19/10/09	Healthcare – one of our biggest industries, is it in good shape? Conference time – reports from the gatherings Corporate recovery – is the patient responding? Singapore – still bucking the trend?
December deadline 18/11/09	How was it for you – the world in recession. We review progress and try to find optimism for 2010. The year ahead – get your crystal balls out Turkey – another year for a booming economy Reports from invoice financiers around the world – with IFG

Business Money Ltd, Bowdens Business Centre, Hambridge, Somerset TA10 0BP United Kingdom

Group editor: Robert Lefroy, editor@business-money.com

Advertising: Sophie Grove, advertising@business-money.com Production: Angela Milner, production@business-money.com

Tel: +44 (0) 1458 253536 Fax: +44 (0) 1458 253538