

Editorial schedule 2010:

January deadline 6/12/09	Business banking UK – nurturing green shoots? Commercial mortgage UK CEOs – a tough 2009, what does 2010 hold? Invoice finance in Australia and New Zealand CFA conference 2009 – Las Vegas
February deadline 20/01/10	Wet trade UK – last orders, the last time? Trade finance – Coping with recession? Credit insurance – timid or pragmatic? Invoice finance France Invoice finance Germany
March deadline 17/02/10	Receivables 2009 – the thirteenth Business Money annual review of the UK receivables finance sector Corporate restructuring – does the sector need restructuring? MBOs – a regular report China – thousands of SMEs – where to find the capital
April deadline 19/03/10	Manpower – where are the agencies going? Distribution – coping with a crowded island Receivables 2009 follow up India – an immense trading nation Factoring worldwide – operational challenge
May deadline 17/04/10	Retail – any hope on the high street? Internet sales – growing, growing. IT business Italy – basket case or weaving a success? Israel – where now? The Seventh Business Money All-Asset Finance Conference – London – then future of ABL in the UK
June deadline 19/05/10	Supermarket suppliers – supplying two for the price of one? Property – counting the bricks Commercial mortgages UK – a comprehensive review USA – in debt and struggling? Russia – factoring, out of the red and growing
July deadline 18/06/10	Leisure UK – staycationing on the up? Rural industries UK – more than a huge leisure park? United Arab Emirates – coping with world slowdown Poland – vibrant but are homecomers pulling their weight
August deadline 17/07/10	Corporate recovery – boom time Hungary – coping with hard times Canada – catching the USA backlash? The Business Money Review of All-Asset Finance providers
September deadline 19/08/10	Invoice finance report – the UK CEOs have their say Professionals – the legal and accountancy professions Home working – top marks? Buy-to-let – growing again? Ireland – where now?
October deadline 18/09/10	Intermediaries – the big boys are moving in, what are the others doing? Property – autumnal update MBOs – is the sun still shining? South Africa – an economy facing challenges Malta – growing, growing
November deadline 20/10/10	Healthcare – one of our biggest industries, is it in good shape? Conference time – reports from the gatherings Corporate recovery – is the patient responding? Singapore – still bucking the trend?
December deadline 19/11/10	Is your world still in recession? We look at progress and try to find optimism for 2011. The year ahead – crystal balls gazing Turkey – a booming economy Reports from invoice financiers around the world – with IFG

Business Money Ltd, Bowdens Business Centre, Hambridge, Somerset TA10 0BP United Kingdom

Group editor: Robert Lefroy, editor@business-money.com

Advertising: Sophie Grove, advertising@business-money.com Production: Angela Milner, production@business-money.com

Tel: +44 (0) 1458 253536 Fax: +44 (0) 1458 253538